Foreword

We wish to express sincere appreciation to our principal, faculty members, our parents, and to each one who has helped us become the Seniors we are today. Each one of us has fond memories of our high school days which we will never forget.

In the following pages of the 1967 MEMOIRS, every page will have a different meaning for each individual. We have tried to capture these golden moments that have made this chapter in our lives so memorable.

After we have gone our separate ways and memories have faded into the past, we hope that this yearbook will help you to recall those wonderful years at Spring Hope High School.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1967, are proud to dedicate our annual to Mrs. Ruth Douglas. From the time we entered high school as freshmen until now, she has guided and helped each one of us through her patience and understanding. We have gone to her when we had an important decision to make or in times of stress and she has never failed us.

With a deep sense of esteem, we dedicate the 1967 MEMOIRS to Mrs. Douglas.

MR. PARRISH

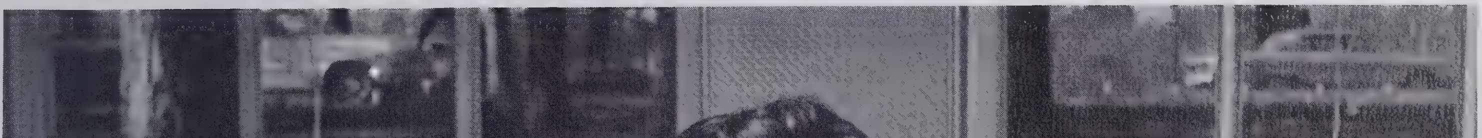
Our principal, Mr. Parrish, has shown an interest in each student at Spring Hope School through his concern, guidance, and leadership. Through his words of wisdom, we leave here better prepared for the future. Long after we have left S. H. H. S. we will remember Mr. Parrish and thank him for his help through these years.



MRS. BISSETTE

Mrs. Bissette is a very familiar and friendly face around S. H. H. S. She is in her office, ready and willing to lend a helping hand to any student who needs it. Besides being a valuable school secretary, Mrs. Bissette is also a friend to each student here.

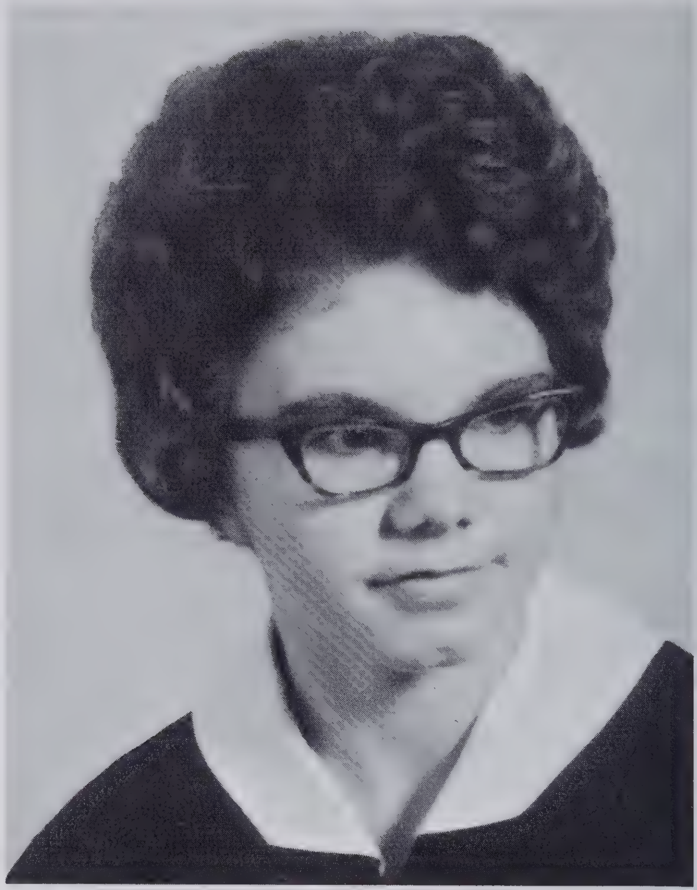
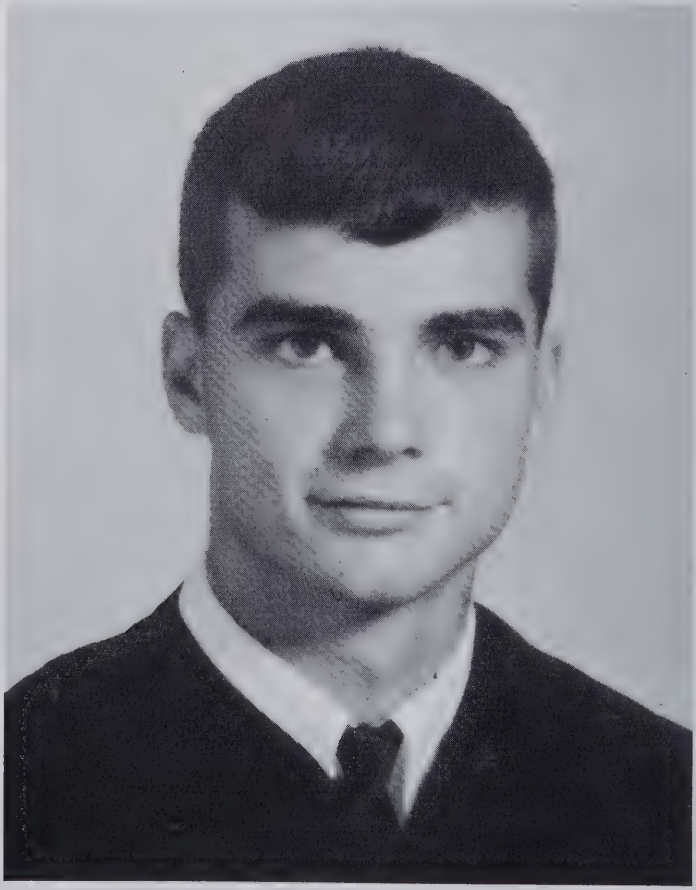
Features

Outstanding Seniors



DIANE BAINES

It is hard to describe Diane's accomplishments during her four years in high school. She has kept up her excellent grades and was this year awarded "Most Likely to Succeed" and "Most Dependable." Diane's unfailing ability to succeed at everything she does proves that she will gain her goal in life.



BRENT BASS

Voted "Most Athletic" and "Most School Spirit" by his Senior classmates, Brent has proven his ability by being an outstanding football and basketball player. He has shown an interest in his school by participating in extra-curricular activities as well as maintaining a high scholastic average. All of Brent's many friends are sure of his success in life.

LOIS JEAN FLORA

Dependability and helpfulness are but two of Lois's characteristics. She is always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone who needs it. This year the F.F.A. is honored to have her as its President. She has served in this capacity very well. Whatever her plans for the future, the Senior Class wishes Lois the best of luck.

ELLIOTT JONES

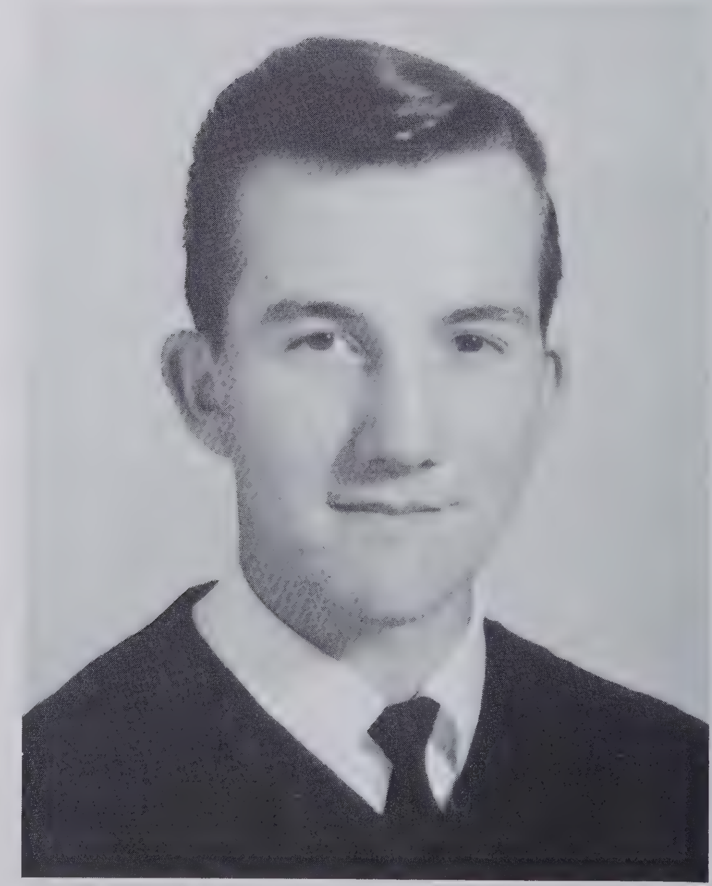
A winning smile and an interest in his school best describe Elliot. "Most Likely to Succeed" and "Neatest" are two of the honors awarded him during his Senior year. During his four years in high school, he played football and showed an interest in all other sports. His friendliness and willingness to do his part will certainly assure him success.

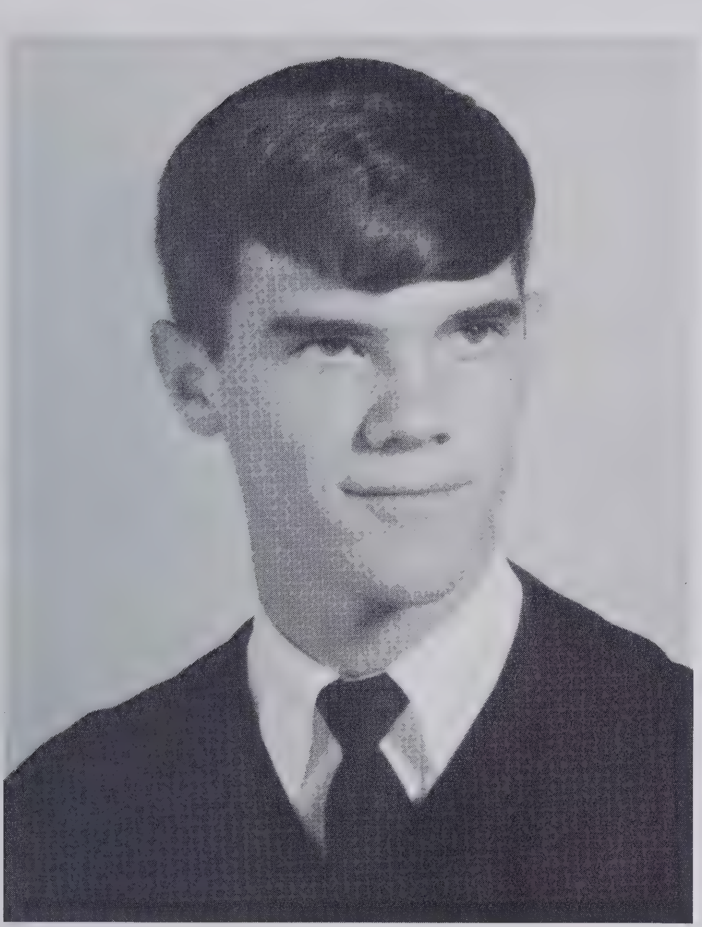
WILLIS LAMM

Whenever there's a group of students laughing and talking, you can be sure Willis is the center of activity. His leadership qualities can be seen in the school as he serves his Senior Class as President and on the athletic field as an outstanding football player. We are sure Willis's outgoing personality will carry him far in life.

GLENN MORGAN

"Most Dependable" was the superlative won by Glenn this year. This is truly one of his most outstanding characteristics. Whenever there's a job to be done, Glenn is called on and always does it well. Although Glenn came to us during his Junior year, he quickly made a place for himself just as we are sure he will make a place for himself after he finishes school.





DAVID MORGAN

A good all-around boy is the term used to describe David by his classmates. Chosen "Typical Senior" and "Most Talented," he takes part in various extra-curricular activities. He was elected Vice-President this year and has done his job well. We know that David will be an asset to the college of his choice and wish him the best of luck.

CAROLYN WOOD

During her four years in high school Carolyn has participated in various activities. This year the Senior class elected her as "Most Versatile" and "Most Athletic." Carolyn's cooperative spirit and interest in others has made her well-liked by her classmates. The Senior Class wishes her the best of luck as she strives for her goal in life.
